

Resources on Financial Literacy

These resources were assembled by the U.S. Department of Treasury, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Financial Literacy Resource Directory

The OCC's Financial Literacy Resource Directory provides information on financial literacy resources, issues, and events of importance to bankers, organizations, and consumers of all ages. The resource directory includes descriptions of, and contact information for, government programs on financial literacy education and capability, and a sampling of organizations whose missions are to support financial literacy through campaigns, fact sheets, newsletters, conference materials, publications, and Web sites.

MyMoney.gov

MyMoney.gov is the U.S. government's Web site dedicated to teaching consumers the basics about financial education. The redesigned, interactive site includes information from 21 federal agencies and bureaus to help consumers plan for life events with financial implications, such as buying a home, balancing a checkbook, and planning for retirement. The Web site also provides money management tools, such as financial calculators and worksheets.

HelpWithMyBank.gov

The OCC's HelpWithMyBank.gov Web site provides answers to approximately 250 commonly asked banking questions. While targeted to customers of national banks and federal savings associations (FSA), the Web site has answers to many questions common to all bank and FSA consumers and provides useful information about contacting regulators of state banks, and other financial institutions; and includes an online complaint form for bank customers wishing to register their concerns to the OCC. Information is also available in Spanish. A link from HOPE NOW—an alliance of counselors, mortgage companies, and other mortgage market participants—to HelpWithMyBank.gov has been established.

America Saves Resource Packet

America Saves offers this resource packet to highlight the importance of saving for college.

BBB Scam Stoppers

The Better Business Bureau offers this Web site to educate consumers about scams and offer a way to report scams directly to the BBB.

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau web site

The CFPB educates consumers, supervises banks, credit unions, and other financial companies, enforces federal consumer financial laws, and analyzes available information to better understand consumers, financial services providers, and consumer financial markets.

CFPB Spanish-language web site

Money Smart for Older Adults: Prevent Financial Exploitation

The CFPB and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation offer this tool to help older consumers and their loved ones prevent financial fraud and exploitation.

Retirement Toolkit

The U.S. Department of Labor, in cooperation with the U.S. Social Security Administration and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, launched this online toolkit to help workers identify key issues related to retirement planning and understand important decisions related to employment-based plans, Social Security, and Medicare.
